Under Section 22 of the Mysore Civil Courts Regulation, I of 1883, the Chief Court directs that all the Civil Courts in the State be closed from Monday the 4th day of April to Saturday the 14th May 1921 (both days inclusive).

The Chief Court will be closed for the annual vacation from Monday the 4th day of April to Saturday the 4th June 1921 (both days inclusive).

No application for admission of Civil Appeals will be received in the Chief Court during the vacation except in urgent cases, where it is sought to obtain an injunction or an attachment or to stay proceedings. Criminal appeals and revision petitions will be received and emergent applications will be disposed of by the Vacation Judge.

CRIMINAL SIDE.

Corrigendum dated the 30th October 1920, to Rule of Practice No. 5, dated the 12th June 1878.

In supersession of the Rules of Practice Nos. 43, dated the 27th November 1885 57, dated 9th January 1892; Circular letters Nos. 29, dated 6th December 1881, 102, dated 20th May 1892, 139, dated 17th November 1898, 157, dated 18th July 1904, and the Chief Court Proceedings dated the 10th August 1895, the Chief Court directs that the following form be substituted for Register No. III, prescribed by the said Rule of Practice :—

REGISTER NO. III (Criminal).

Register of Miscellaneous Cases received in the Court of

Number	Name and residence of petitioner, if any, or designation of officer by whom reported	Name and residence of defendant	Section and Chapter of the Criminal Procedure Code under which Proceedings are instituted	Result	Date of			Remarks
					Receipt of petition or report	Commencement of inquiry	Order
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

NOTE—The following cases will be entered in this register :—

1. Proceedings against witnesses under Chapter VI C and Section 485, Criminal Procedure Code.

2. Proceedings under Chapter VIII to prevent breach of the peace (Sections 106, 107, 108, 112, 119 and 123, Criminal Procedure Code).
3. Proceedings under Chapter VIII, security for good behaviour (Sections 109, 110, 112, 119 and 123, Criminal Procedure Code).
4. Proceedings against public nuisances under Chapter X, Criminal Procedure Code.
5. Possession under Chapter XII, Criminal Procedure Code.
6. Frivolous or vexatious accusations summarily dealt with under Section 250.
7. Non-attendance of jurors or assessors under Section 332, Criminal Procedure Code.
8. Maintenance under Chapter XXXVI, Criminal Procedure Code.
9. Forfeiture of bail or recognizance under Chapter XLII, Criminal Procedure Code.
10. Proceedings under Section 563 against convicted offenders released under Section 562, Criminal Procedure Code.
11. Proceedings on complaints under the Breach of Contract Act.
12. Proceedings under Sections 13 and 15 of the Lunacy Regulation.
13. Proceedings for disposal of property under Sections 518 and 523, Criminal Procedure Code.
14. Proceedings under Section 480 (contempt of court), 512 (against an accused who has absconded) and Section 552 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

The date of institution in miscellaneous proceedings is the date on which any proclamation is published, process issued or order made, or on which the accused is produced in Court or is called upon to show cause why an order should not be made against him.

As regards some of the cases classed as miscellaneous the terms "conviction" and "discharge" (columns 6 and 7) of the Quarterly Statement No. IV can only be arbitrarily defined, but as a general rule it may be said that a person should be regarded as "convicted" whenever an order adverse to him is passed as final or is made absolute. If proceedings terminate without such an adverse order the person who, but for this termination might have been the object of such adverse order, should be regarded as "discharged".

(i) An order for sale of attached property under Section 88 of the Code would be equivalent to conviction even though the attached property be subsequently restored under Section 89.

(ii) An order made absolute under Sections 136, 137 or 139 of the Code would be regarded as a conviction.

(iii) An order of attachment under Section 146 does not terminate the proceedings and the case must remain pending till a final order is passed.

(iv) In cases under Section 2 of the Workman's Breach of Contract Act, 1859, if an order to repay the money or a part of the money advanced or to perform or get performed the work contracted for is passed, the accused will be treated as convicted, otherwise as discharged. If the order is disobeyed and it is proposed to sentence the offender to imprisonment, a separate case will be registered in the register of original cases.

When a case which has once been decided is ordered in appeal or revision to be retried or further inquired into, the retrial or further inquiry will for all purposes, including duration, be regarded as a separate case whether it takes place in the court which originally tried the case or in some other Court. A note will, however, be made in the remarks column against the new line of entries giving the number under which the case was originally registered and the number and date of the order of the appellate or revisional court.

NOTE 2—The reports submitted by the Police in Forms B and C under Sections 169 and 173, Criminal Procedure Code, and inquests held by the Magistrates should not be entered in this register; if a summon or warrant issue and judicial investigation result on a report under Section 169, Criminal Procedure Code, the case should be entered in Register I.
